KEYNOTE PAPER:

University Research in Agglomeration/Briquetting

Dr. Tom Marrero, University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri

FUNDAMENTALS & RESEARCH:

The Cost to Agglomerate

Sara Gantner, Bepex International LLC, Minneapolis, Minnesota

Refuse-Derived Fuel from Municipal Solid Waste Residuals: A Feasibility Study

Eugene Kuzub, Carolyn Sturgess, Ph.D., Richard Johnson, M.Sc.
Alberta Research Council, Vegreville, AB Canada

Developing Equipment & Process for Economical Production of Biomass Solid Fuel

Yuyi Lin, Hank Seltzer, University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri

Densification of Corn Stover and Switch Grass

Dr. R. Vance Morey, Nalladurai Kaliyan
University of Minnesota, St. Paul, Minnesota

Briquetting of Coal Fines and Sawdust Blends

Darrell Taulbee, UK-CAER, Lexington, Kentucky

Briquetting of Coal Fines and Sawdust: Part 2. Compaction and Combustion Studies

B.K. Parekh, Darrell Taulbee; D.P. Patil; R. Honaker
University of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky

Recent Developments in FEM Modeling of Powder Processing in the Roller Press

Dr. Roman T. Dec, Prof. Antonios Zavaliangos, Dr. John C. Cunningham
K.R. Komarek Briquetting Research Inc., Anniston, Alabama

ANCILLIARY SYSTEMS FOR AGGLOMERATION

Determining the Economic Payback of a Conveyor Drying System

Andy Britt, Aeroglide Corporation, Raleigh, North Carolina

Powder Mixing and Industrial Applications

Thomas Wong, Kircher Industries, Lancaster Products Division
Lebanon, Pennsylvania

Exploring the Versatility of "Free-Fall Processing®"

Bill Callaghan, Continental Products Corporation
Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Controlling Segregation When Feeding to Agglomerators

Brian Pittenger, John W. Carson, Ph.D.
Jenike & Johanson, Inc., Westford, Massachusetts

EQUIPMENT & PROCESS

Designing Safety into Size Reduction Equipment

Scott Wennerstrum, The Fitzpatrick Company, Elmhurst, Illinois

The WetPress Process

Paul Language, Beca Pty Ltd, New South Wales, Australia

Latest Design for Roller Presses for Potash Compaction

Norbert Klinker, Maschinenfabrik Koppert GmbH & Co. KG
Hattingen/Ruhr, Germany

An Update on Coal Briquetting

Dr. Brian Young, Envirosafe International Pty. Ltd.
Surrey Hills North, Australia
